Dr. DeWitt Elmer Delawter, b: 1916

Note: Nevin Brandenburg and DeWitt Delawter were first cousins. The grandparents of both were Noah & Virginia Delawter, and also the Brandenburgs.

Just a note of interest as DeWitt has been very instrumental in mine and Nevin's interest in genealogy. Also same relationship to Henry & Mary Brandenburg (1795-1845). Recently Nevin and Leatherman cousin's replaced the fence surrounding Brandenburg Homestead plot cemetery.

Note: On a trip to Frederick County, in March 1991, I visited Mrs. Grace (Rohrer) Brandenburg, the wife of Austin T. Brandenburg, grandson of Marion G. Brandenburg, who lived in the same house that his grandfather lived in. Austin T.'s father was Oscar C. Brandenburg. She told me the house was 150 years old, and that Marion bought it from a Biser. The home was just at the 'Y' in the road after crossing Catoctin Creek, going south from Interstate 70 to Middletown, Maryland. The house was gray stucco. I believe it is near where William Henry Brandenburg Senior lived, because in at least one of the early church records it stated he lived on Catoctin Creek.
