Patricide. The Murderers of a Missouri Editor Discovered.

St. Louis, Mo., October 27. -- It will be recollected that about a month ago, Dr. P. H. TALBOTT, a prominent citizen of Maryville, Mo., and editor of the Greenback paper published at that place, was shot through the window of his residence and killed, while he was retiring for the night.

Yesterday his son, Albert TALBOTT, was arrested on the charge of committing the murder, and Mrs. TALBOTT, wife of the Dr., Ed. TALBOTT, another son, and a hired man named WYETH, were arrested as accomplices. Their preliminary hearing is going on to-day at Maryville.
